PAYMENT POLICY*

Excerpt from the Tutors SA Enrolment, Payment & Cancellation Policy*

C.1. Payment in advance: All tuition fees must be paid in advance by the due date stated in the invoice or before commencing classes, whichever occurs first.

C.2. Payment method and initial payment: Our centres are cashless. Tuition fees are collected by Direct Debit/Auto Charge through Spark using Visa or Mastercard credit or debit cards. The enrolment fee and initial tuition payment specified in the enrolment offer are payable when the enrolment form is submitted. Enrolment is confirmed after successful payment.

C.3. Ongoing automatic payments: The payment authority accepted during enrolment covers scheduled charges for accepted subjects and courses, including term-to-term and annual rollovers. Parents and caregivers must maintain valid card details, sufficient available funds and an active automatic payment authority in Spark.

C.6. Payment options: For regular group and extension classes, fees are payable in advance for the full year or full term, or through instalments.

C.7. Early bird discount: A 2.5% discount applies to full-term payments of regular tuition made by the specified due date, as detailed in the Schedule of Fees & Charges.

C.8. Instalment payments: A 2.5% premium applies to instalment payments of regular tuition. This option is available only for subsequent terms and is not available to parents enrolling for the first time. Payments must be made by the specified due dates.

C.14. Applicable fees and conditions: Parents and caregivers agree to be bound by Tutors SA's Schedule of Fees & Charges, including its payment terms and conditions, which are subject to change from time to time.

For the full payment requirements, please refer to our Enrolment, Payment & Cancellation Policy, available on our website.
